

Jon North, a junior lineman, has established himself as one of the strongest members of this year's football team. The weight room will be opened Friday evening so that the public can see the new equipment.